

Module 1: Why a Critical Skills Curriculum on Psychotropic Medications?

Learning Goals

1. Describe CriticalThinkRx curriculum rationale and objectives
2. Describe project background, players and sources of funding
3. Describe selection process, bias and orientation of curriculum content
4. Assess the significance of the case studies presented and the implications to course learner's practice
5. Reflect on the relevance of the "critical questions to ask yourself about your client's medication" to course learner's practice

Questions for Practice, Supervision and Administration

1. Apply the critical "questions to ask yourself about your client's medication" to a current case in your practice, and identify areas where you can demonstrate excellence and areas that need improvement